This is a document related to a survey of a land plot in Odessa, Texas, titled "Ponderosa Estates East 4th Filing." The document includes a cadastral map with dimensions, scale, and various annotations including names and signatures of individuals involved in the survey process. The map details the layout of streets, plots, and other features within the property. The text contains legal descriptions and certifications by various parties, including a registered professional land surveyor, a notary public, and other officials involved in the survey and filing process. The document is marked as filed for record and recorded on a specific date.